

Clinical Trial Results - Phase III Study

The protocol was followed strictly by all participants.
Information about the study design was provided in writing.
The results indicate significant improvement in patients.

Section 2: Methods

Patients were randomized to two groups.
Information was collected over 12 months.
The medication was administered daily.

©2024 Research Corp. All rights reserved.

⚠️ This document contains confidential information.